

SINDH AGRICULTURE UNIVERSITY TANDOJAM

سند زرعى يونيورسٽى ٽنڊوچام

PUBLIC RELATIONS SECTION

TANDOJAM(HANDOUT) Scholarship cheques were distributed to more than 200 students of Sindh Agriculture University, through Prime Minister,s Ahsas Undergraduate Scholarship Program, Scholarship cheques were distributed among first, second and third year students of different faculties of the university, addressing on the occasion held in the Senate Hall of the University, Dr. Zaheer-ud-Din Mirani, Vice Chancellor, Sindh Agriculture University, Tandojam, said that in the era of competition, we will not be able to achieve our goals, without hard work and research, therefore the youth of Sindh will have to take education and research seriously. He said that there is no other way to make a place in the private and public sectors except academic performance. He said that there are many benefits for poor and hardworking students.

Dr. Muhammad Ismail Kumbhar, Director, University Advancement and Financial Assistance, said that "We are doing our best to help the students to get scholarships and we wish that USAID, Japan-based Scholarship, AAK Scholarships, HEC Need Based Scholarships, Mora Scholarships, Minority Scholarships, Bait-ul-Mal Scholarships and other scholarships can be availed by the students, he said that a scholarship portal and a complaint center are also being set up on the university's website for the convenience of university students, He told, talks on scholarships and endowment funds have been initiated with OGDCL and other institutions, Director Student Affairs Qamaruddin Jogi, Syed Noman Shah, Gul Sher Lochi and others were present on the occasion.

PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER